The New York State Census Equity Fund (NYSCEF) invites proposals from nonprofits working to reach, educate, and mobilize hard-to-count populations to participate in the 2020 Decennial Census. Established in 2018, the NYSCEF is a funders collaborative that seeks to ensure a fair and accurate census count of all residents of New York State.

Mini-grants to support outreach efforts designed to encourage hard-to-count populations and/or those living in hard-to-reach census tracts outside of New York City and Long Island counties of Suffolk and Nassau within New York State to participate in the self-response phase of Census 2020.

WHO MAY APPLY?
Eligibility Requirements:

- The project takes place outside of New York City or the Long Island counties of Suffolk and Nassau within New York State.
- The duration of the project is no longer than six weeks.

Applicants must be any of the following:

- Nonprofit or community organization holding a current tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code
- Recognized governmental entity including state, county, or city agencies such as health departments
- Educational facilities, such as K-12 public, private, or charter schools or school districts and higher education institutions
- Public Library servicing cities, towns, and villages.

WHEN SHOULD I APPLY?
Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis starting on February 5, 2020. This cycle will close when all funds have been awarded or on March 31, 2020, whichever occurs first. Notification of awards will occur 10 business days after submission.

HOW SHOULD I APPLY?
The New York State Census Equity Fund will accept grant applications through an online application system hosted by the Community Foundation of Elmira-Corning and the Finger Lakes. The first step will be to create a new account. You only need to do this once.

- You will need to have your organization’s tax ID handy when creating your account.
- All applications must include a completed project budget and expense form. Download the form here.
- In addition, the online application will ask you to upload your organization’s operating budget for the current year.

If you have any questions about this grant opportunity, please contact Jonathan Richardson at 518-446-9638 or jrichardson@cfgcr.org.
