The National Council of Nonprofits wrote this statement as an article in The Hill, speaking truth to power and building bridges to others for joint demands for action: “Extreme partisanship is literally killing Americans and our economy. Our federal officials must take swift action for lives are literally at stake. Solutions that both sides can live with are not out of reach. Every day they fail to take action worsens the destruction.”

The economic solutions for this coronavirus crisis are available.