APPLICATION OPENS FOR NEW STATEWIDE PROGRAM TO STRENGTHEN SMALL NONPROFIT ARTS ORGANIZATIONS

October 17, 2023 (Albany, NY) — Applications are now open for a new program to strengthen small arts organizations based across New York State, led by the New York Council of Nonprofits, Inc. \(NYCON\) and the New York Foundation for the Arts \(NYFA\) with funding from the New York State Council on the Arts \(NYSCA\). Small arts nonprofits provide key resources in their communities, yet often struggle to survive and grow. The new —NYSCA Stabilization Program for Small Arts Organizations— is designed to help participants identify and become more capable to address significant operational issues that are impeding their growth or development. The program will serve eligible nonprofits through a combination of tailored advisory services and financial support.

Applicants for the new NYSCA program must hold 501(c)3 nonprofit status or be fiscally sponsored by a 501(c)3 organization. They must also have an annual operating budget of less than $1 million, and be based outside of New York City. Rural and BIPOC-led (Black/Indigenous/People of Color) community-based organizations are strongly encouraged to apply.

The first round of applications for the NYSCA Stabilization Program for Small Arts Organizations program must be received by Nov. 16 of this year, and a second-round application deadline will be Feb. 1, 2024. Click here for further information, including a link to the application. At the conclusion of the program, each organization may also be awarded a grant of up to $10,000 to help them purchase equipment and/or further services that reinforce their newly increased capacities.

Nonprofits are eligible to apply for the program whether or not they have received past grant support from NYSCA. Both NYFA and NYCON are themselves nonprofits and bring to this program decades of experience in advising and supporting arts organizations. Each organization will work with applicants and participants from different parts of the state (see below a list of designated counties):

— NYCON: Central, Western, Southern Tier, and Finger Lakes regions

“We now know the arts are outpacing manufacturing, retail, healthcare and construction for creating jobs in upstate communities,” said Katherine Nicholls, Chair of the New York State Council on the Arts. “This training and funding for arts groups will help them flourish as they continue to provide economic security and community health all across the State. We are proud to support NYCON and NYFA in this essential work.”

New York Council of Nonprofits CEO Megan Allen noted, “NYCON has been fortunate to work with NYSCA to support arts organizations across the state since 2006, and we are excited to partner on this new initiative. The stabilization programming will allow us to provide additional arts organizations with robust services and access to all NYCON experts. We look forward to helping these organizations grow and thrive into the future.”

“We’re proud to partner with NYSCA and NYCON on this much-needed program,” said Michael Royce, CEO, New York Foundation for the Arts (NYFA). “We look forward to giving organizations the tools and support they need to be more sustainable long-term, because their work and the services they provide ultimately benefits many and provides a vibrancy to the New York State communities of which they are a part,” he added.
